Call for Proposals on 2014-2015 Common Experience Theme of FOOD

The Common Experience Advisory Committee invites proposals from faculty, staff, students and administrators that will produce a multifaceted approach to our adopted Common Experience theme for the 2014-15 academic year: FOOD. Proposals involving lectures, seminars, the arts, and other approaches are encouraged.

Proposals should include a brief concept paper, implementation plan, and budget (maximum award of $2,000 from CE resources). Implementation plans should describe affiliated coursework, intended audience, month or semester of implementation, participant engagement efforts, and learning outcomes as appropriate to the nature of the proposal. Projects that support one or more of the seven Essential Learning Capacities of the General Education Program are highly encouraged (See General Catalog, Pgs. 90-91, http://arweb.sdsu.edu/es/catalog/2012-13/parts/086-098_GradReq.pdf). Total proposal length should not exceed five pages (excluding appendices).

We have adopted a new program format that moves away from one common reading for the academic year to a broad examination of a theme. Please see our new program mission below.

Program Mission – The Common Experience promotes increased interactions among faculty, staff, and students through a focus on a common contemporary theme, related readings, and academic endeavors. On an annual basis, the Common Experience Advisory Committee selects a timely and relevant theme, and invites participation from across the campus to develop a series of lectures, seminars, and complementary academic activities by faculty, authors, community and civic leaders for the following academic year. Common Experience lectures and activities are intended to extend student learning and faculty-staff-student experiences beyond the formal classroom. Students will engage in deconstructing and exploring a common subject, treated and examined through multidisciplinary lenses, learn to value intellectual- and personal-responsibility, and apply academic thought towards finding meaningful solutions to real-world problems.

The Common Experience is indebted to its new advisory committee:
